Mission Statement

The MISSION of the Springboro Police Department is to work in partnership with the residents and businesses of the community to provide a safe and secure environment where the quality of life may be enhanced through the delivery of fair and impartial police services.

Value Statement

- We insist on honesty and integrity within our profession
- We respect all people and their dignity
- We value each Police Department employee and their contribution to our mission
- We recognize our responsibility to the community

The Springboro Division of Police works in partnership with the community to provide protection and security for its citizens. The Police Division exists to protect people and property, to foster a community spirit and adherence to the law, to provide rapid response to citizens needs for service and to provide a variety of emergency services.

Police Chief—Chief Executive Officer

The Police Chief is responsible for planning, organizing, operations analysis, community relations and public affairs, development of operations policies and procedures, publishing enforcement and training bulletins and the development of short and long range operations.

Springboro Division of Police is organized into to components:

Operations Section

The Operations Section consists of the following functions:

- Patrol
- Property Management
- Crime Prevention
- Investigations Unit
- Criminal Investigations
- Personnel Training
- Juvenile Delinquency

Communications Records Section

The Communications Records Section is responsible for the reception and dispatching of calls for service to the Springboro Police Division. It is responsible for the maintenance and control of all police reports and records within the police division, except those reports which by their nature would stay under the control of the Police Chief.

Operations Section

The Operations Section consists of:

- Lieutenants
- Sergeants
- Investigators
- Patrol Officers

The function of the Operations Section include the following:

Patrol

The patrol function is responsible for the protection of life, property and the prevention of crime and the apprehension of offenders through a combination of random and direction patrol by uniformed police officers in marked police vehicles. The patrol force is responsible to preserve the public peace, response to calls for service, render assistance to persons when necessary, conduct preliminary and follow-up investigations reported offenses.

Crime Prevention

The crime prevention function provides crime prevention programs to the citizens of the community. The Crime Prevention Officer is also involved in public relations for the department. He is sometimes responsible for assisting the community with block parties, arranging for tours of the building for scout troops, etc. He shall keep up to date on crime patterns within the city and identify problem areas within the community, then make recommendations to reduce those areas that have been identified.

Communications/Records Section

The Communications/Records Section consists of:

- Lead Dispatcher/Office Manager
- Dispatcher/Deputy Clerks

The Communications Records Section, under the supervision of the Lead Dispatcher, is responsible for the reception of citizens coming to the department for service or calling the non-emergency phone number. The main and most important duty of this component is to receive and transfer various types of information to the County for dispatch by computer CAD system, by telephone, and by two-way radio. It is responsible for receiving payments, typing charges for presentment in Springboro Mayor's Court when the Clerk of Courts office is closed and for performing receptionist clerk/typist duties. It is responsible for the maintenance and control of all police reports. The Warren County Communications Center handles the primary responsibility of radio dispatching for road units and handles all 911 calls for the City.

In 2007 the County Communications Division dispatched 15,345 calls for service compared to 15,569 in 2006.
