Police Chief – Chief Executive Officer

The Police Chief is responsible for planning, organizing, operations analysis, community relations and public affairs, development of operation policies and procedures, publishing enforcement and training bulletins, and the development of short and long-range operations.

Springboro Division of Police has been organized into three components:

Administrative Section:

The Administrative Section consists of the following functions:

- Policy Research and Development
- Personnel Training
- Equipment Management
- Facility Management
- Payroll
- Recruitment and Hiring Processes

Operations Section:

The operations Section consists of the following functions:

- Patrol
- Crime Prevention
- Property Management
- Criminal Investigations

Communications/Records Section:

The Communications/Records Section consists of the following functions:

- Reception of non-emergency calls for service
- Maintenance and control of all police reports and records
- Civilian fingerprinting
- Collection and reporting of crime statistics

Administrative Section

The Administrative Section consists of:

- 1 Lieutenant

The function of the Administrative Section includes the following:

Policy Research and Development

This function entails researching department policies and procedures, as well as policy development, and forwarding recommendations to the Chief of Police.

Equipment/Facility Management

This function entails general facility maintenance and upkeep. The Administrative Lieutenant also oversees the Temporary Holding Facility, its operations, regular inspections, and compliance with state regulations.

Personnel Training

This function is to provide department personnel with adequate and proper training whether it is provided at this department or at an outside agency.

Hiring Process

The Administrative Lieutenant is responsible for all aspects of the hiring process. Some of these responsibilities include recruitment, the scheduling and administering of the physical fitness assessment and written test, conducting a panel interview, and scheduling the polygraph and psychological examination.

Citizen Complaints and Internal Investigations

The Administrative Lieutenant is responsible for investigating formal complaints made against employees of the police department.

Operations Section

The Operations Section consists of:

- 1 Lieutenant
- 5 Sergeants
- 4 Investigators
- 19 Patrol Officers

The function of the Operations Section includes the following:

Patrol

The patrol function is responsible for the protection of life, property, and the prevention of crime and the apprehension of offenders through a combination of random and direction patrol by uniformed police officers in marked police vehicles. The patrol force is responsible to preserve the public peace, respond to calls for service, render assistance to persons when necessary and conduct preliminary and follow-up investigations on reported offenses.

Crime Prevention

The crime prevention function provides crime prevention programs to the citizens of the community. The Crime Prevention Officer is also involved in public relations for the department. The officer is sometimes responsible for assisting the community with block parties, arranging for tours of the building for scout troops, etc. The officer shall keep up to date on crime patterns within the city and identify problem areas within the community. The officer will then make recommendations to reduce those areas that have been identified.

Property Management

The property management function is responsible for the maintenance, storage, return, and destruction of found and seized property.

Criminal Investigations

The criminal investigations function is responsible for the control of the investigations of most felonies and high profile cases. The Criminal Investigations Unit is also responsible for the overseeing of all the criminal investigations within the police department from arrest to prosecution.

The criminal investigations section also works closely with the Warren County Drug Task Force, the Ohio Organized Crime Commission, and the Tactical Crime Suppression Group of the eight south Dayton communities.

Communications/Records Section

The Communications/Records Section consists of:

- 1 Office Manager
- 1 Assistant Office Manager
- 3 Customer Service Managers/Deputy Clerks of Court
- 1 Department Comfort Dog

The Communications/Records Section, under the supervision of the Office Manager, is responsible for the reception of non-emergency calls for service and the transferring or relaying of those calls to the Warren County Communications Center for dispatch. It is responsible for entering calls for service into the CAD (Computer Aided Dispatch) system, receiving payments and typing charges for cases in Springboro Mayor's Court when the Clerk of Court's office is closed. It is responsible for the maintenance and control of all police reports and for performing receptionist clerk/typist duties. The Warren County Communications Center handles the primary responsibility of radio dispatching for road patrol units and handles all 911 calls for the city.

In 2022, the Warren County Communications Center dispatched 19,566 calls for service compared to 17,770 in 2021.
